

MEMBERS OF JURY WHICH INDICTED NEWBERRY TESTIFY

Give Testimony of Three Workers of Michigan Senator
DEFENSE SPENDS
DAY OBJECTING

(By Associated Press.)

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Feb. 6.—What three Newberry men told the Grand Jury which returned indictments against them, the Michigan Senator and 131 other campaigners of 1918, was told in the trial of the case here today.

The revelations of the inquisitorial proceedings came from C. R. Higbee, of Benton Harbor, clerk of the Grand Jury, and Charles S. Potts, of Hastings, a member of the body.

They said the defendants whose testimony they rehearsed had waived immunity, testified voluntarily, without receiving promises of any kind and with full knowledge that what they told the Grand Jury might be used "for any and all purposes."

The defense fought hard to keep the testimony from the trial jury. Martin W. Littleton was on his feet constantly questioning the admissibility of the evidence and testing the memories of Higbee and Potts. He was overruled on the exclusion question, but Judge Clarence W. Sessions held that the testimony could be considered in the present proceedings only against the three defendants whose Grand Jury testimony was rehearsed.

Another struggle over the same testimony was probable for tomorrow as the defense reserved its cross-examination until that time. Mr. Littleton told the court that this was done to give an opportunity to check up on the statements made today and thus save time.

Touch Helme Nomination.
Besides the Grand Jury testimony the day brought additional evidence regarding the methods by which James W. Helme was nominated to run against Henry Ford in the 1918 primary. Two men from Grand Rapids told of receiving $5 a day and their expenses to get signatures to the nominating petitions and all the petitions filed were brought into court by an attaché of the secretary of state's office at Lansing. The prosecution asked only that the "time" petitions be introduced for the purposes of the defense also had Newberry petitions left in the custody of the court clerk Helme himself cross-examined the witness from the secretary's office, but failed to learn who brought the petitions to the state house.

There were also evidence today as to a second bank account kept by Charles Floyd, head of the Grand Rapids branch of the Newberry campaign, but it was not established that this was anything more than a personal account. Judge Sessions indicated that the testimony might be stricken out later.

Witnesses Cross Examined.
The Grand Jury witnesses were subjected to a cross examination by Mr. Littleton before they were allowed to answer questions asked by Frank C. Bailey for the government. They acknowledged they had refreshed their memories just before taking the stand by going over notes made by Higbee or Dale Souter, one of the government attorneys. While this was going on Potts remarked to Mr. Littleton that he "could have to go some to remember all the testimony of more than 300 witnesses," and the defense lawyer replied:

"I'll say you would have to go fast."

Higbee said he had made notes of the testimony of the witnesses who impressed him as important and Potts said he had done the same thing. Higbee's notes, it transpired, had been deposited with the federal officials, but Potts said he had destroyed his after the indictments had been returned.

Potts and Higbee related the Grand Jury testimony of John M. Harris, former probate judge at Boyne City; Terry C. Corliss, former State Senator and now a member of the state board of auditors, and James R. Davis, of Lansing, Sergeant at Arms in the State Senate.

The witnesses agreed that Judge Harris told the grand jury he had received $800 in salary and half that amount for expenses, all this money coming from Detroit headquarters except some $300 which was given him by Charles Floyd.

Judge Harris was quoted as saying that he told Floyd it would take about that amount to cover the expenses in his own county.

Asked for Expense Statement.
The witnesses also agreed that Harris said that about the close of the primary campaign Floyd

STRINGENT LAWS WILL NOT CURB RADICALISM

New York Attorney General Declares Only Solution to Problem is Education.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Feb. 6.—Stringent laws and their strict enforcement will not curb radicalism, but education must walk hand in hand with law, Charles D. Newton, attorney general of New York, today told the house judiciary committee, which is considering anti-sedition legislation.

Though differing with the New York attorney general in the extent and seriousness of the radical movement, Francis H. F. Kane, who resigned as district attorney for eastern Pennsylvania because he differed with the department of justice in its campaign against the "reds," agreed that education was needed because many members of the communists, communist labor and other radical parties were ignorant of the purposes of the organization and signed membership cards under false assumptions.

Former District Attorney Kane told the committee he saw no menace to the country, whatever, in the way of radicalism, much of that which is said and written on the subject being "mere bunk."

From the New York Attorney General, however, the committee got a different view. Five hundred thousand radicals had organized in New York with the plan of overthrowing the government, he said, adding that unless congress and the American people soon wake to the danger it will be too late to stop their activities.

The radical movement, Attorney General Newton asserted, is fed on ignorance and misguidance. For that reason he recommended that teachers of Americanization work simultaneously with the department of justice agents.

LEWIS OFFICIALLY NAMED MINERS' CHIEF

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—At a meeting of the international board of the United Mine Workers of America today, Frank J. Hayes resigned as international president of the miners' union. The board advanced President John L. Lewis to the office of president, and Philip Murray, president of the Pittsburgh district, was chosen vice president.

Hayes has been in poor health for more than a year, due to a nervous breakdown. He had a leave of absence last summer and has not yet recovered sufficiently to resume office. Lewis has been acting president of the union. He directed the affairs of the union through the wage negotiations and the recent strike and is the miners' leader in the present hearing before the coal commission.

Murray is rated as one of the conservative leaders of the miners. He has been president of the Pittsburgh district for four years and in that time his district has shown a smaller percentage of local strikes than any other districts in the organization.

DANIELS RECOMMENDS MORE DESTROYERS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Construction of three aviation carrier and four destroyer tenders, was recommended to congress today by Secretary Daniels, who proposed that fabricated steel on land at the Hog Island shipyard be used, thus reducing the cost of the vessels from $23,000,000 to $11,000,000.

The navy now has seven destroyer tenders and two others will be completed within the next two years. The destroyer force by the end of 1920 will include 298 large destroyers, Secretary Daniels said.

"Innovations born as the result of the war indicate an urgent necessity for the two classes of vessels at this time," the secretary wrote. "It is imperative to insure the mobility which belongs to it is a naval arm, tenders and carriers must be provided. A tender will serve as a portable aviation base."

CLOUD OF SMOKE DARKENS CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Steam and elevated trains were delayed and surface transportation seriously hampered by a pall of smoke which hung over Chicago today.

At 2 o'clock the darkness was so intense that automobiles and street cars were unable to move without headlights. Street lights were shut off at the usual hour and as a result thousands of workers were late, delayed by the low moving cars.

Weather Observer Cox said the condition was purely local and not due to fog. There was no wind to carry the smoke away, he said, and as a result the clouds settled over the city.

MUST TENDER CONTRACTS BEFORE MARCH 1

Auburn, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Minor league ball players under reservation must be tendered contracts on or before March 1, according to instructions sent today to club owners of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues by John F. Farrell, secretary of the association.

AURORA REPORTS 4,000 NEW CASES OF INFLUENZA

Death Rate in Northern City Highest in State

CONTINUES TO SPREAD

(By Associated Press.)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 6.—Reports received today from Aurora, Illinois, indicate that there are 4,000 cases of influenza and that the death rate is the highest in the state. Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, director of the department of public health said tonight. Dr. Drake sent a message Thursday to Mayor Charles Townsend and L. J. Mead, president of the Aurora Commercial Association, urging them to take steps to enforce the quarantine rules for influenza and make every effort to check the spread of the disease.

Dr. S. S. Winner of Chicago, who was sent to Aurora by the health department to investigate the epidemic, reported that there had been lax enforcement of the quarantine rules.

According to Dr. Drake, the health department has issued no orders to close parochial schools, churches, theaters and all public gatherings as reported today from Aurora. If such action was taken Dr. Drake believes the order was issued by the mayor upon the recommendation of Dr. Winner.

The influenza epidemic continues to spread from the north to the southern part of the state, Dr. Drake says. It is subsiding in the northern counties but has yet to reach the peak in the southern portion.

FAMOUS NEW YORK POLICEMAN RETIRES

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—New York City lost one of its famous "strong arm" policemen today, when Patrolman Eelig ("Ajax") Whitman retired after a picturesque career of 26 years. The 56-year-old veteran who was known nationally as a strong man, was injured more than a score of times in halting runaway horses and received official commendation for bravery seven times. He will receive an annual pension of $50.

He was chosen ten years ago to form a "strong arm" squad to break up the notorious "car barn gang" which was then terrorizing Harlem. The gangsters landed either in jail or in the hospital. "Ajax" gave exhibitions of strength on a tour with the late John L. Sullivan before the boxing champion fought "Jack" Kilrain. Among his noted feats were pushing a loaded freight car weighing more than twelve tons and lifting by his teeth a hoghead of water upon which stood several men. He was credited with lifting a 1,030 pound dumb bell with his teeth.

POLICE SEEK FIVE EASTERN GUNMEN

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—"Gunmen from the East"—five alleged professional killers from New York and one from Buffalo—were sought today by the Chicago police and officials from the state's attorney's office as the probable murderers of "Boss" Enright, notorious labor feudist and gunman, who was shot to death here Tuesday night.

About two weeks before Enright was killed, five men were imported from New York, it was claimed by the police, who said they came here with Mike Carozzo, president of the Chicago Street Sweepers' union. The men could not be found after the killing. Carozzo, a portage of "Big Tim" Murphy, is under arrest.

George Kenney, secretary to the state's attorney, left for New York last night to make an investigation.

JESTRAW WINS ICE SKATING CHAMPIONSHIP

Malone, N. Y., Feb. 6.—Charles J. Jestraw, of Lake Placid, New York, eastern amateur champion, featured in the Northern New York amateur ice skating championships here today, won the 440-yard dash. Joe Moore, also of Lake Placid, captured the two-mile event and Everett McCowan of St. Paul, Minnesota, led the field in the half mile.

PULLMAN CHIEF INJURED IN WRECK

Philadelphia, Feb. 6.—Frank E. Johnson, negro Pullman chief, who was slightly injured in the wreck of the Southern Express train here yesterday, along with thirteen others, was killed last night. He was hit by an express train while standing on the tracks at "Dead Man's Curve," watching the wrecking crew jack his dining car back on the rails.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT GIVEN VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Paris, Feb. 6.—(Havas.)—Confidence in the government was voted by the chamber of deputies today. The vote was 513 to 68.

PRINCESS ANNE AGROUND NEAR ROCKAWAY POINT

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Baffled by a blinding snow storm and the towering waves of a furious sea, all attempts of rescuing vessels to reach the Old Dominion Liner Princess Anne, aground off Rockaway Point with 104 persons aboard, had failed tonight.

The distressed vessel which is about a half mile off shore, could not be discerned thru the darkness tonight because of the thick weather. She was also unable to communicate by wireless as her dynamo was reported to have gone out of commission late this afternoon.

The liner is not believed to be in any immediate danger, as she is apparently resting easily on a sand reef. Captain F. Seay, in command of the Princess Anne, is reported to have broken his knee cap. Many of the passengers are believed to be suffering from cold and exposure. The ship is also said to be lightless tonight, as the lighting plant was reported out of commission.

If the weather continues rough tomorrow and the stranded steamer is endangered by the heavy seas, it is planned to attempt the rescue of the passengers by breeches buoy. If it is impossible to shoot lines aboard, it is stated that the naval dirigible B-10, at Rockaway air station, may be used to carry a line to the vessel.

On board are 32 passengers who left Norfolk yesterday for New York and a crew of 72. Half a dozen ocean-going tugs, supplemented by coast guard life savers were endeavoring to effect their rescue in the face of a storm which observers declare is the worst on this coast in many years.

The Princess Anne went aground early this morning. Her wireless sent broadcast an S. O. S. and as soon as crews could be summoned, two navy tug boats and a coast guard cutter put out to her assistance.

The life guards at Rockaway Point attempted to send a surf boat to her assistance but high seas, pounding the beach in waves twenty feet high, made succor from that source impossible.

A change in the direction of the wind late this afternoon resulting in a somewhat less turbulent sea, indicated that rescue of passengers and crew soon may be effected. The steamer herself, according to wireless reports, is so badly damaged that she may be lost if the pounding continues for another 24 hours.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—The

Bark Wrecked.
The bark George W. Schofield was wrecked near here by the storm. It went ashore near Corson's Inlet Wednesday night and today is high and dry on the beach. The Cedar Beach life saving crew rescued the crew.

OFFICIAL LIST OF A. E. F. CASUALTIES

Completion of Revised List Shows Total to Number 293,670—Killed in Action 34,844.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Completion of the record of A. E. F. casualties in the world war was announced today by Adjutant General Harris with the issuance of a final revised list of the "old casualties."

Since the review of the A. E. F. records practically has been completed, it was stated no further additions or corrections were anticipated.

The last name added to the list of killed in action was Paul Schmidt, Kalamazoo, Michigan, bringing the total casualties to date as follows:

Killed in action, including 382 at sea, 34,844.
Died of disease, 23,960.
Died from accident and other causes, 5,102.
Wounded in action, (over 85 per cent returning to duty) 215,423.

Missing in action (not including prisoners released and returned) three.
Total of 293,670.

War department officials said it was remarkable that the final compilation showed only three men listed as "missing in action."

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO CERTIFICATES CLOSED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Closing of subscriptions to the last series of certificates of indebtedness tonight concluded the treasury's program of financing immediate post-war demands of the nation.

Theoretically, the government now stands with accounts balanced with the exception, of course, of the bonded indebtedness. The approximately $25,000,000,000 in Liberty bonds and Victory notes now outstanding will be retired under the sinking fund provisions of the war loan act.

While there are outstanding certificates of indebtedness aggregating $2,953,704,500, they were issued in direct anticipation of the payment of income and excess profit tax installments.

The indication of being lower than the amount of revenue which will be received, thus assuring prompt retirement of all certificates of indebtedness as they mature and without further issues of short term paper.

The certificate issue on which subscriptions closed tonight, was dated of February 2, and will mature on March 4, coincident with the first tax installment payment. While reports as to the sales were not fully complete tonight, Secretary Houston said they exceeded $300,000,000.

SHOPMEN APPROVE NATIONWIDE STRIKE

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 6.—The general chairman of the Maintenance of Way employees and shop laborers' union, in conference here today, unanimously approved the proposal to call a nationwide strike if necessary to enforce demands for wage increases and sent word to Director General Hines that action would be taken if the demands were not met.

The vote was taken after Allen E. Parker, Grand President had advised the conferees that representatives of the union in Washington reported they saw little chance of agreement with the railroad administration.

Should the strike be called, Brotherhood officials said, their union would act independently of the other railroad organizations. They added, however, that employees would be thrown out of work if some of the demands were not met. Beds were allowed to go to pieces and shop forces were crippled.

LEADERS WILL MOVE ADOPTION OF RESERVATIONS

Will Take up Report of Bi-Partisan Committee

HOLD MANY CONFERENCES

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The modified reservations, agreed tentatively by the recently abandoned bi-partisan committee, most likely will be the basis on which consideration of the peace treaty will be resumed next week in the Senate.

Republican leaders, after a series of conferences with their party colleagues today decided to take the initiative in suggesting adoption of the bi-partisan committee's modifications of the Lodge reservations. Although it is expected that the original republican reservations will be attached to the treaty when it is ratified to the foreign relations committee, it is understood Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, will present the modified draft as a substitute after the committee has reported.

Definite decision as to whether the Democrats would accept the modifications will not be reached, it was stated today, until tomorrow's conference of Democratic friends of the treaty and perhaps not then. The general opinion prevailed however, that the changes would prove satisfactory to a majority of Democratic senators.

Acceptance of the bi-partisan modifications by both Republicans and Democrats was considered as likely to narrow differences to a few of the prominent issues. Some quarters it was predicted that agreement could be reached without much delay on all but two of the fourteen reservations proposed for incorporation in the ratification. These two relate to Article 10 and the Monroe Doctrine on which Republican leaders assert their determination to accept no modification, while the Democrats are equally emphatic in their declaration that modification will be necessary if the treaty is to be ratified.

There are many Senators on both sides of the chamber, however, who predict that some agreement eventually will be reached. This view is not shared by the irreconcilables opposing the treaty, who held numerous conferences today and will meet again tomorrow in their campaign to defeat ratification.

In pursuance of his plan of putting all presidential candidates on record in regard to the treaty, Senator Borah, Republican, of Idaho, one of the irreconcilables, today sent a questionnaire on the subject to Governor James M. Cox, of Ohio, a Democrat.

"I notice in the press reports this morning," the Idaho Senator wrote, "your attack upon the Republican senators for delaying the ratification of the peace treaty. I am not clear from the report, however as to your exact position."

"I infer from your statement that you are in favor of ratifying the treaty of peace with the league of nations in incorporated just as it came from Versailles and as it was submitted to the Senate."

Are you in favor of entering the league with article ten in it without any change or modification thereof or without any reservation as to the obligation of the United States in reference thereto?

"I understand from your speech that you are thoroughly in favor of the provision of the league which gives the British empire six votes to the United States one. Am I correct in so construing your position?"

"Are you opposed to promoting the question of whether we shall become a member of the league to be submitted to the people in any way? If you are not opposed to submitting it to the people may I ask in what way you would suggest that it be submitted?"

SEATTLE SHOPMEN QUIT WORK

Tacoma, Feb. 6.—Five hundred employees in the locomotive department of the Northern Pacific shops at South Tacoma quit work at 4:30 this afternoon at the end of eight hours work, disregarding the order of Director General Hines establishing a nine hour day effective today. Their rejection of time and a half for an extra hour's work was the result of a vote taken by the machinists, blacksmiths and boiler makers.

Railroad officials said they could not say whether any of the men would be discharged.

TWO BURIED ALIVE IN GRAVEL PIT

Bellevue, Iowa, Feb. 6.—J. P. Wagner, a farmer, living near here, and his son, Edward 24, are dead as the result of being buried alive in a gravel pit. Both were dead when rescuers reached them.

LABOR WILL TAKE PART IN ELECTIONS

Nationwide Campaign Will Be Made to Elect Only Those Friendly to Organized Labor.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Feb. 6.—Definite plans for the first nationwide, aggressive political campaign by organized labor to control congress and elect friendly national and state officials have been made by a committee of the American Federation of Labor and will be announced soon. The fight, labor officials declared today, will be bi-partisan and will be launched in the coming presidential primaries.

Organization details have been formulated by a committee composed of the executive council and department presidents of the federation, which has been in session here for the past two days. Samuel Gompers, president of the federation said tonight that an explanation of the movement would be made public tomorrow.

Representatives in Congress whose record shows them to be unfriendly to organized labor, it was said, will be opposed vigorously for re-election, and new candidates hostile to labor's interests will meet the same opposition. Every craft affiliated with the federation will be called upon to join the political fight, it was added, and congressional districts will be actively called, and an army of organizers will be put in the field. The federation now claims a membership of more than 4,000,000.

In addition, the campaign will be carried to state and local primaries and elections and an attempt made to obtain governors, judges and legislatures well disposed toward labor.

"The street cleaning department admitted that it was virtually helpless because of its inability to hire men. From 75 cents to $1 an hour was offered for snow hovelers but only 3,000 of the 14,000 men needed could be recruited. Conditions in Fifth avenue and on the water front were worse than any other section. On the aristocratic avenue the snow had been churned up by motor cars until it was at the consistency of dough. It rested on a solid foundation of ice six inches thick.

Lacking trucks and men to remove the snow, the department could do was to keep plows moving to clear paths in the middle of the streets which were filled up almost as soon as they were opened.

The department of health was rankly alarmed because of the condition in the streets. Walking with dry feet was almost impossible and the removal of garbage could not be carried on systematically.

The problem of distributing the city's food supply also had become serious. Milk trains arrived very irregularly today and trucks loaded with all kinds of groceries and produce made their rounds with the utmost difficulty.

Some relief was promised for the fuel shortage by an order directing the diversion of coal for the public utilities of the city, but reports from the coal docks showed that the storm has caused almost a complete suspension of operations.

Dozens of persons were injured today, many seriously by falling copings, awnings, cornices and narquoise carried down by weight of snow. Lieutenant Colonel Frederick Davidson, stationed at Governor's Island, died today from a fracture of the skull suffered when he was struck by a class canopy. Eight steamers were fast in Long Island Sound and tugs sent to their relief were making vainly against the ice.

The steamer Maine ashore off Execution Point, was listed to port and seemed to be down by the head. Two wrecking tugs trying to assist her were fast in the ice field. Another sound steamer was helpless a short distance away.

Several coasting schooners and a number of barges were frozen in. Trans-Atlantic ships were held in port and wireless reports from vessels at sea told of high winds and raging waves.

Railroads running into New Jersey and Long Island were struggling gamely but against heavy odds to keep trains moving. Thousands of commuters started home with grim forebodings that they would have to spend the night in day coaches. There was no alternative, however, for rooms in hotels were not obtainable at any price.

The west end of the day from the west on the New York Central arrived about 2 o'clock after having taken nearly fourteen hours for the usual four hour run from Albany.

WASHINGTON REPORT

Washington, Feb. 6.—Looking out into the middle west, weather bureau officials tonight saw relief for the Eastern seaboard from the snow storms and the high winds which have held that portion of the country in its grip since Wednesday.

The storm has swung to the north, it was stated, and tonight had reached the New England coast. It had stopped snowing in the southern group of middle Atlantic states and a sure cease some first train of snow was predicted for most of New York.

Temperatures thruout the storm area will remain slightly below freezing for the most part.

Railways Hampered.
Severe storms, raging over practically the entire eastern half of the United States have cut seriously into operation of the railroads. Director General Hines reported tonight. Trains were running late on nearly every division of the Mississippi river. Coastwise shipping, a necessary link in the railroad transportation chain, was delayed by the spread of influenza. These conditions, Mr. Hines said, have been further complicated by the spread of influenza.

LITTLE RELIEF IN SIGHT FOR SNOW BOUND NEW YORK

30 Mile Gale Continues to Sweep Over City

SCORES ARE INJURED

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—New York still was storm bound late tonight and there was small prospect of relief. The city's great army of commuters started home through snow squalls blown from the northwest by a thirty mile gale, and the weather bureau said the fall would continue for another 24 hours.

Surface cars had almost ceased to operate.

The street cleaning department admitted that it was virtually helpless because of its inability to hire men. From 75 cents to $1 an hour was offered for snow hovelers but only 3,000 of the 14,000 men needed could be recruited. WILLIAM WILL SUPPORT GENERAL O'BRIEN

Washington, Feb. 6.—Francisco Villa, the revolutionary leader in Mexico, has agreed to support General Alvaro Obregon in his candidacy for the presidency, according to unofficial advice reaching Washington today. These advice state that Obregon has given to Villa detailed information regarding his platform and the principles upon which he will conduct his campaign and administer the affairs of the government if elected and that this information meets with Villa's approval.

General Obregon is reported making his way toward the border on an electrifying trip and plans to make important declarations with reference to Carranza's hostility toward American, British and other foreign interests in Mexico.

BOLESHIVKI RECRUITING NATIVES AND PRISONERS

WASTED MENTAL EFFORT.

"A representative in Congress conscientiously determined to waste none of his time, for which Uncle Sam pays him $20 a day, Sundays and holidays included, breathlessly informed the House that:

"If the $22,000,000,000 that the war cost the United States were counted in silver dollars, it would take a man counting seventy-two a minute working eight hours a day 1,774 years to count them.

"If the silver dollars were laid side by side they would stretch 520,832 miles.

"Their weight would be 687,500 short tons.

"Loaded in box cars of forty tons capacity, they would make a train of 17,187 cars 150 miles in length."

"Has the industrious statesman pursued his interesting studies far enough to arrive at an estimate of how long it would take American taxpayers to pay a national debt of $22,000,000,000 silver, plus the Government's running expenses, if nothing is done to lower the cost of administration?"—New York Sun.

It goes without saying that there will be no prosecution of sugar profiteers or at least prosecution of a vehement kind. The fact is the government has practically admitted that southern planters have been given the understanding that 17c would not be considered as an exorbitant price.

Mince pie and plum pudding will doubtless come into new popularity because of the ruling of a federal prohibition agent that alcoholic liquors can legitimately be used for flavoring in cooking. But then perhaps those who really have a taste for liquor and failed to lay in a stock will find the touch of brandy in pie and pudding merely tantalizing and awakening the memory of bibulous days that are now a matter of history.

ORDER VS. CONFUSION

The presence of a traffic cop at the street corner in a busy city gives a very clear idea of order. Those radicals who complain of laws and restraint—who think that there is a tendency to restrain the rights of individuals, should think of the mixups that would come without the traffic cop as a representative of the law. There would be strife and fatality and the greatest confusion at every street corner many times a day if the law did not prescribe the method for traffic movement, if pedestrians and vehicle drivers did not conform to the orders of the cop.

Announcement has just been made that Fifth and Park avenues, two great longitudinal arteries of motor traffic in New York, are to be one way streets. This plan is believed will avoid confusion which in the past has meant limitless annoyance in the rush hours. The streets were laid out for the convenience and the free use of the public, yet the law is going to provide in which direction a car must move on these great thoroughfares and of course the speed is regulated.

Some people imagine that if there was less of legal restraint in this country that it would be a very happy place, but just this one little matter of traffic emphasizes the great necessity of law and organization for the safeguarding of the commonest rights of individuals.

JACKSONVILLE WANTS PROGRESS

Judged by the voiced opinions of citizens who attended the conference at the city hall yesterday afternoon on public policy questions, the people here wish Jacksonville to go forward. Everybody knows that there are very prosperous days in Jacksonville and that property values have materially increased. People believe this is partially due to the general upward tendency of the times, but that the finding of a water supply has been the largest factor. But never mind about the cause, the wished for days are here and property is now bringing the value it is really worth. For a time people are that improvements should be delayed, that lower prices would no doubt come very soon. Now they believe that high prices are here to stay and they want Jacksonville to keep pace with other cities.

Bloomington, Decatur, Quincy, Danville, Alton and other cities of the state are planning for paving and other betterments this year, and so citizens who have considered the matter for the most part fully agree that the same forward-looking policy should obtain in Jacksonville.

Certainly it is well worth while for the city council members to give their own views on these questions and to openly seek the advice of citizens.

On the Job.

It is a pleasant thing to find the man who knows his trade; he ornaments the human kind, his fame will never fade. I take my car to divers shops to have the works repaired, what time the carburetor pops, and busted wires are bared. And one will toil around all day, and make the blamed thing worse; and if he duly gets his pay, he cares no tinker's curse. Another breaks a costly piece as with a sledge he beats, one smears a lot of rancid grease upon upon the velvet seats. And then I find the rinkum that is bent, the one that's broke in two. He diagnoses my old boat as some great surgeon might, and he restores my errant goat, and fills me with delight. In ten brief minutes he has found just why the motor struck; he deftly makes the wheels go round, and taxes me one buck. His shirt is damp with motor oils, he is in grime arrayed, but has my blessing as he toils—the man who knows his trade.

Coach Says Routt Won.
A few minutes after getting the above score and report from New Berlin Coach Conlin of the Routt high team came into the office and told a different story of the game.

Coach Conlin said that the ball was in play and was tossed by Carson and counted before the whistle blew, ending the game. This made the score 24 to 23 in favor of Routt.

According to the coach the referee, Miller of Springfield, acknowledged to him after the game that the basket counted but that he was afraid of saying so because of the temper of the crowd. Mr. Conlin said the spectators crowded about the Routt players after the game and some of them brandished their fists under his nose. We give herewith the score as shown by the Routt score book. TONSILINE
Really Does Relieve
SORE THROAT

TONSILINE We think this name a happy one. It almost tells its own story. You at once think of the tonsils. They are the most sensitive part of the throat. Throat troubles generally start with the tonsils, hence the name of our throat remedy—TONSILINE.

THE THROAT It is the gateway to the body. The air we breathe, the food we eat, and the water we drink, all pass through it. If this passageway is poisoned or diseased or infected with germs, the entire body soon absorbs the contagion. The slightest ailment of the throat is a danger signal. Think of it and you will realize that this is the commonest kind of common sense.

SORE THROAT Too many people imagine that a Sore Throat is only a simple little ailment. They think that it is something that comes today and is gone tomorrow. They neglect it. They put it off, thinking every day that it will be better tomorrow. Many a sad mistake has been made in this way. A Sore Throat is never a little ailment.

If every mother could realize the real danger that lurks behind every case of Sore Throat, she wouldn't rest until she had effected a cure every time a child has it. Your family physician will tell you it is a positive fact that every child with Sore Throat is in real danger of contracting Croup, Quinsy, Tonsillitis or Diphtheria and is not removed from that danger until the throat is cured. Sore Throat is a specific and well defined disease. It is the most common throat disease. That is why Tonsiline is specially prepared as a Sore Throat Remedy. That is why nearly all our talks are about Sore Throat and the fact that Tonsiline relieves.

ALL THE WAY DOWN.
The Tonsiline Co. I would say we have used Tonsiline with the greatest satisfaction in the family, both for children and adults. We found it very effective and believe that if the neck was twice as long as the body the picture and story of this little Tonsiline would tell you truly, and in a big way, how it pleased with the remedy.

The Paliser Case is the latest and greatest story of Edgar Saltus, one of the most brilliant writers in America's literary firmament, and is so rife with great dramatic situations, and so tense with emotionalism, that Mr. Saltus wisely decided that only Goldwyn could produce it and none but Pauline Frederick could enact the tremendous role of the woman 'round whom this thrilling drama revolves.

FUNERAL OF MRS. A. A. TODD HELD FRIDAY

Impressive Funeral Services Held Friday Morning at First Baptist Church—Further Services to be Held at Alton Today.

A large company gathered at First Baptist church Friday morning at 9 o'clock for the funeral of the late Mrs. A. A. Todd. The services were in charge of Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church, assisted by Rev. E. L. Fletcher and Rev. W. R. Johnson.

A quartet including Misses Dorothy DeMay, Helen Carpenter, Messrs. Maurice Peckham and James Guyette sang two selections and Miss Hazel Belle Long gave as a solo, "The Shadow Land So Beautiful."

The floral tributes were exceedingly beautiful and were cared for by members of Mrs. Todd's Sunday school class: Misses Hulda Faugust, Nelle Faugust, Edith Dowdy, Maude Nesmith, Margaret Mayer and May Edmonds.

After the first number by the quartet Rev. Mr. Fletcher offered prayer and Rev. Mr. Johnson read as a Scripture lesson a part of the 12th chapter of Ecclesiastes. Mr. Johnson also read the obituary sketch. The final selection by the quartet was "Asleep in Jesus."

Rev. Mr. Pontius took as his text the verse, "To me to live is Christ, to die is gain." He said in part:

Mrs. Todd lived a quiet, effective Christian life. She lived for her family, for the church which she loved and for the God whom she worshiped. During a period of four years Mr. and Mrs. Todd walked together along the pathway of Christian friendship as students in college. For nearly a score of years they have walked together along the pathways of Christian experience and Christian ministry.

Mrs. Todd was a great worker in the church. Especially did she love to work with and for the young people. In the First Baptist church the young people will miss her very much. As the new year came in she recognized it as an increased opportunity and privilege to serve God. She wanted to live, but was not afraid to die.

Mrs. Todd might have uttered as she died these words: "To me to live is Christ, to die is gain." Life is unending existence and death is an incident in a life that is eternal.

No one can utter these words as he faces death unless he believes in the immortality of the soul. We do not minimize the great sorrow that has come to our brother and his family but we believe that they will return from the cemetery to take up their work in the community with a more triumphant faith and a more glorious hope in the life to come. In behalf of the Ministerial Association of Jacksonville I extend to Brother Todd and his family our most profound Christian sympathy. Our prayer is that they may find abundant comfort in God's word, in spiritual meditation and in prayer.

The bearers were Messrs. Olin Turner, Ivan Smith, Louis Hauck, Leon Stewart, Byron Stewart and George Todd. Following the services at the church the remains were taken to Alton where further services will be held this afternoon and interment will be made.

Skin Eruption Causes Unbearable Itching

Scratching Increases the Irritation of the Delicate Skin Tissue

You can claw your nails into your skin until it bleeds, in an effort to obtain relief from the fiery itching and burning caused by skin diseases, but you only increase the irritation and pain.

And you can pour ointments, salves and lotions by the gallon on the irritated parts, without obtaining anything but temporary relief. Just as soon as the strength of the counter irritant give out, your pain and torture will return with increased violence, because these local remedies have not reached the source of the trouble.

The real source of all skin disease is the blood supply. The blood becomes infected with some impurity, and the disease germs break out through the delicate tissues of the skin. They may appear as eczema, tetter, boils, pimples, scaly eruptions, caused by disease germs in the blood.

The real cure, therefore, must be directed through the blood. And no remedy has yet been discovered that equals S. S. S. for any disorder of the blood. This great old remedy rids the blood of every trace of disease germs, and clears up the complexion and gives it the ruddy glow of perfect health. Get a bottle at your drug store today and you will soon be rid of your tormenting skin trouble. Also write at once for expert medical advice regarding your own case. LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring my sickness on. I was weak and languid, had no energy, and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I look six years younger. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to dozens of my friends and shall always recommend it."

Action in Other Cities Cited at Conference Held Yesterday at City Hall—No Prospect of Lower Prices.

Acting on invitation issued by the city council, a number of citizens met at the city hall Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock to discuss questions of public policy. Mayor E. E. Crabtree presided and told in a brief way of the council's desire to follow as nearly as possible the wishes of citizens with reference to public improvements and general matters of public policy. He said that paving, sewerage, sanitation and other matters of the same class need attention and that it is a question of just what policy the people want to follow.

It is possible to hold all expenditures down and to run the city on a strict plan of economy.
If this is done there cannot be improvements and there can be no forward march. Most of the discussion following, in which everybody was invited to take part, related to paving and by unanimous vote of all those present the city officials were given to understand that Jacksonville wants progress and that while prices are high, there should not be a complete stoppage of public work.

The only formal motion adopted was one made by Thomas Worthington, with a second by Dr. Baker, favoring a license tax for automobiles and all other vehicles, the fund to be used for street repair work.

COUGHED NIGHT AND DAY FOR TWO YEARS

Mr. Parkhurst found quick relief from chronic bronchial trouble.

"Two years ago, I had la grippe which left me with a bad cough. Finally this became chronic bronchial asthma, and four doctors said it could not be cured.

"I commenced taking everything
my friends recommended, but I got worse instead of better. For two years, I was unable to do any work except to cough constantly night and day, which was the hardest work I ever did.

"Finally I got hold of Milks Emulsion. It benefited me so much, right from the start, that it came as a God-send. In two months I was perfectly cured. I gained in health, strength, and flesh rapidly."—J. M.
Parkhurst, Leon St., W. Terre Haute,
Ind.

Coughs like this seldom yield to local treatments. The surest way to reach them is to build up and strengthen the whole system. For any obstinate cough, Milks Emulsion is a remarkable remedy.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.
Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case,
you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

In Other Cities.
City Engineer Henderson had at the request of Mayor Crabtree written to engineers in a number of cities to ask them what will be done this year with reference to improvements. These replies are summarized below:

Bloomington has awarded contracts for 9,763 square yards of brick pavement and is receiving bids on about the same amount.
It is the policy of the city to go ahead with pavement without regard to the high cost.

Springfield has not abandoned any street paving work proposed and estimates are now being made for extensive paving contracts.

Quincy is preparing for nearly 300,000 square yards of paving which will cost approximately $1.
200,000 and sewer work to cost about $500,000.

Alton will do about 50,000
square yards this year from present indications.

Danville. It is thought by the people there that the cost of paving has not gone up more than is true of other necessary things.
Plans provide for paving from 4 to 6 miles. A concrete bridge costing $250,000 is to be built.

Decatur—Plans and specifications are now being made for paving which will cost approximately $1,000,000, and for sewerage work to cost $200,000.

East St. Louis—Contracts have been let for three jobs amounting to $119,240. Others are in court amounting to $187,500 and hearings are to be had on others, estimated to cost $200,000.

Many Discussed Question.

Among those who spoke and all of whom were in favor of going ahead with pavement and taking other action which will mean for the progress of Jacksonville, were Frank Byrns, T. M. Tomlinson,
Rev. J. W. Muse, Thomas Worthington, F. J. Andrews, W. J. Hardy,
John J. Reeve Miss Maria Fairbank,
Dr. E. F. Baker, Alexander Platt
and M. C. Hook.

Robert Smith expressed the view that no paving should be done unless a majority of the residents of the street where the paving is laid are in favor of the improvement.

Other Problems.
So much time was spent in the discussion of paving that Mr.
Crabtree could only mention other matters about which the council wishes the advice of citizens. He referred to sewers, extension of water mains, concrete culverts, inspection of plumbing and building, revision of the ordinances in order to provide license fees to accord with present conditions, vehicle tax, requiring of all reports showing that the peo-

The mayor said that aside from paving there is nothing that so beautifies a city as boulevard lighting along residence streets.
This the council hopes can be done by voluntary action on the part of the property owners on certain streets.

In paving talk there was a common agreement that something must be done to finish up East State street this year and to carry that pavement clear to the limits. Emphasis was also placed on the need for connecting the Hardin avenue pavement with the hard road.

Among those present at the conference in addition to those mentioned above were Public Engineer E. M. Henderson, G. A. Sel-ber, H. J. Rodgers, E. H. Gray,
H. A. Breeden, Charles F. Edrie,

GEN. HOWZE DESCRIBES MEXICAN CONDITIONS

Declares Conditions "Intolerable" Before Senate Sub-Committee.

EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 6.—Conditions in Mexico were described as "intolerable" by General Howze,
commander of the El Paso district,
when he testified today before the senate subcommittee investigating the Mexican situation.

He expressed the opinion that affairs in that country had grown steadily worse in the past ten years, and that "left solely in the control of the Mexicans," the future of that country was "hopeless."

The appearance of General Howze was with the approval of the war department.

The conclusions of General Howze were contained in a short statement he read to the committee, but its presentation was preceded by a summary of the reports he had gathered of American casualties on the American side attributed to Mexicans since 1917. It accounted for eleven killed and seventeen wounded.

Following is General Howze's
statement:

"Off and on during the last four years I have had peculiar advantages of being able to see and to know the things, so far as concerns American and foreign owned property, which have happened on this side of the Rio Grande and in Mexico.

"The intolerable conditions which have covered a period of nearly ten years have continually grown worse and I am convinced the Apex of shamefulness and horror as viewed from the American conception of justice and decency, was reached last fall, a condition which still exists.

"The Mexican government during this ten years of critical time has never, as far as I can determine, done one genuinely just and thing toward our government.
On the other hand, the Mexican government, or its people, has done no end of discourtesies, contemptuous and offensive things of large importance toward our government and our people.

"The result has been an increased estrangement and an increased hatred against the people of the United States. There is no end of reports showing that Americans are being murdered or captured and released on payment of ransoms. Foreign owned properties are being confiscated or practically destroyed. Mexican bands are committing horrible crimes and in isolated places continue to make raids upon the people and property of American citizens located on our side of the border.

"Everywhere in Mexico as far as can be observed, there is lack of progress. Murder, rapine and destruction prevail. From our point of view there is no evidence of constructive statesmanship.
We, who closely observe, believe the future of Mexico is as far as effects, is utterly hopeless if left solely in the control of Mexicans."

Colonel Francis Clover, General
Howze's chief of staff, also was a witness. He was asked regarding the fighting in Juarez on June 15, 16, 1919, when Villa's men captured the city and the situation that resulted in American troops crossing the international boundary. Colonel Clover testified that the bullets which fell in El Paso were from both Mexican armies but that the majority were those fired by Carranza soldiers.

The shots from Carranza's men came, he said, as a result of an attack so planned that it would have been impossible for a great majority of the bullets fired not to have landed in El Paso.

Echoes of the Carranza fight were heard by the committee from General Howze and by George Turner, a negro trooper, who had participated in the fight and who carried Captain Boyd, fatally wounded, out of the firing line.

The negro told the committee of the brutal treatment accorded him and the others who were taken prisoners by the Mexicans. They were stripped of every shred of clothing, half starved and subjected to both mental and physical forms of "third degree" methods for days when they were delivered to the Americans at the international bridge between Juarez and El Paso.

for almost two hours held an audience at the Woman's College spellbound by his marvelous playing last night.

To praise Mr. Bonnet's technic, his phrasing, his registration, his pedalling is to speak only in superlatives; for all of these are such as had not been heard by audiences except as Bonnet has played for them.

But to praise these wonderful feats of skill is to speak of the very least of his equipment for all are eulservient to the call of the soul of the master that is within the man.

Whether he played his own compositions or those of great masters before his own time, there was always the re-creation of the works and new and fresh it welled forth to completely satisfy the audience that taxed
the capacity of Music Hall Auditorium.

Farmers!

You Are Invited

Farm people are not quitters. During the world war farmers sent a third of their help to fight for liberty and at the same time increased production. Now there is another big problem before us and we have started to solve it. The foundation of a strong organization has been laid, and a remarkable record is being made in getting membership and accomplishing things.

You, or any of us can not do much alone but when we al lget together we can do anything that needs doing and is right. You are invited to join YOUR COUNTY FARM BUREAU and the Illinois Agricultural Association. Talk it over with your neighbors. When one of your Bureau members and a State Association man stops at your place ask him about anything that you do not understand. Be ready to join hands with other farmers and put agriculture on a solid footing.

Big Money In Hogs

With the increasing growth of large cities and manufacturing towns of the United States and the foreign demand for pork products, hogs can be raised at a large profit for a long time to come. If the production should be increased 25% the demand would be great and hogs would be raised at a good profit.

To increase this profitable industry of the United States it will be necessary for the breeder to take special care of his brood stock and raise all the pigs he can and see that they get a good start. The feeder should keep his stock in good health and make them heavy before marketing.

NATIONAL HOG POWDER will assist you to raise more hogs from a given number of sows and will assist to make larger hogs.

Order a sufficient amount for your brood sows and pigs now to give them to good start this spring.

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been much interested in the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Mentholized Arcline mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished. It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly sniffing and snuffing, blowing and hawking, when all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint gargle the throat twice daily and snuff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.

MOVEMENT OF STOCKS ON EXCHANGE AMAZING

[By Associated Press.] NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Business on the stock exchange today, with a turnover of approximately 1,500,000 shares, was characterized by a succession of the most amazing movements in the recent history of the institution. The market opened at gains of one to seven points for many of the better known issues, the rally being based largely on further betterment shown by foreign exchange.

By midday, when call money ruled at 17 per cent, pressure of a professional character was resumed, all early gains being replaced by extreme losses of five to 17 points in speculative issues and 2 to 5 among more stable shares.

When it became evident in the final hour that the usual Friday demand for call money over the week end would not materialize loans fell to 10 per cent and the entire list shot briskly upwards.

Stocks that featured the acute depression of the mild session, such as General Motors, Crucible Steel, Equipments, Oils, American Woolen and shippings rallied for much of the day to indicate that the recovery derived much of its impetus from the shorts.

Rails, however, failed to keep pace with the final rally. General Motors reduced its gross decline of 17 points to a net of seven points, with actual gains for some of the prominent steels and equipments.

Bonds were heavy as stocks were falling, but received much of their lift when buying of Liberty and Victory issues restored recent losses. Other domestic issues were irregular with international.

Sales (par value) aggregated $13,675,000.

DUN'S REVIEW OF WEEK'S BUSINESS

[By Associated Press.] NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Dun's tomorrow will say: "The drawback of winter, with severe storms and cold aggravating and already congested transportation situation, have not been the only forces operating against business progress. More far reaching in its influence has been the unparalleled depreciation of European exchange, continuing for months almost without interruption and assuming a state where international commerce is seriously impeded. While certain reports of the situation seem to have been overdrawn, yet the heavy discounts on currencies of leading foreign nations present formidable obstacles in the maintenance of large merchandise shipments, and have a highly important bearing on the future of business and prices. A not dissimilar result of the financial movements of the week has been a more sharply defined policy of conservatism and caution in various mercantile and industrial channels, and a disposition to proceed more slowly in making forward commitments. "Weekly bank clearings $8,169,375,183."

HEAVY SELLING OF OATS LOWERS CORN

[By Associated Press.] CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Talk of importation of oats from Canada had a bearish effect today on the grain markets here. Corn closed nervous, at the same as yesterday's finish to 1½ cents lower, with May $1.30 ¾ to $1.30 ½, and July $1.27 ¾ to $1.27 ½. Oats lost 1½c to 1¾c net, and provisions seven cents to 50 cents. Depreciation of Canadian Exchange made circumstances such as to bring about attractive offerings from Winnipeg of 500,000 bushels of oats delivered at Chicago or Buffalo, duty paid. Besides, houses with Winnipeg and seaboard connections were heavy sellers of oats here. Until these facts had become generally known, the corn market showed comparative strength today, but afterward prices declined under pressure of liquidation and short selling.

Possibility of large amounts of Canadian oats being available here for delivery on May contracts put the bulls in the oats market at an unusual disadvantage. Provisions weakened with grain notwithstanding higher quotations on hogs. Lard offerings were relatively scarce.

ROTARIANS HEARD FARMERS GIVE VIEWS

Men Specially Interested in Membership Campaign Made Addresses at Luncheon.

Illinois men who are here putting on the membership campaign for the Illinois Agricultural Association and Morgan County Farmers Club are very much in earnest about their work. This is the impression that a number of the visiting farmers gave to the Rotary club at luncheon at the Pacific hotel Friday. The group of visitors included, J. P. Mason, Elgin; Peter Clauser, DeKalb county; A. A. Hill, Decatur; J. P. Lyons, Pontiac; Charles W. Black and H. J. Rice, president and secretary of the Farmers club; George B. Kendall, county agent and A. C. Rice.

W. L. Fay, vice president, presided and expressed the pleasure the club had in the presence of these men, who are so thoroughly interested in agriculture, for Jacksonville realizes the great advantage to a city in being surrounded by high class farming land. Mr. Mason was the first speaker and said that the time had come when farmers felt that they were justly entitled to have some part in fixing the prices at which the products of the farm are sold.

The Farmer's Long Hours "The fact has been," said Mr. Mason, "the farmer has worked from sunrise to sunset all the year around and then has gone into the market with his products and someone else has fixed the price without any special regard as to what has been the cost of production. This has been true simply because the farmers have had no organization. "Now it is proposed through county, state and national organization to give the farmer a voice in these important matters in the expectation that there will not be so much difference between the cost of the producer and the cost to the consumer.

"The uncertainty of the price of cattle has been one of the hard things for the farmer. He has been compelled to trust entirely to chance and the future about the price he will receive for cattle after expending upon them a great deal of time and feeding them high priced corn. In the end he has been compelled to take just whatever price the market has offered."

Mr. Hill referred to a government report recently issued which showed that farmers in some localities are intending to cut production because their farms had not been profitable. He said that he realized this was not true in some farming communities, but it is true in others. He said that farming is basic and that the workers in all other industries are dependent upon the farmer. In other lines there is some definite plan for keeping production costs and selling costs in their proper relationships.

The Mutual Benefits. Mr. Clauser is a Dane and his language gives some indication of that fact. He landed in America 25 or 30 years ago with $2 in his pocket, and told the Rotarians yesterday that he still had them. It is a matter of common knowledge, however, that he has added quite materially to those original resources and is accounted as one of the most successful farmers in DeKalb county. He said the farmers are organizing not because they want to rob the public but because of their own selfishness. He said that he had to have their interests considered by lawmakers and others.

"We want to bring producer and consumer closer together," he said, "and the organization that we are now perfecting will be for our mutual benefit. Mr. Lyons spoke very briefly along the same general line as those who had preceded him. Mr. Black expressed appreciation on behalf of the Farmers club for having the special program arranged. He said that the relations between the people of Jacksonville and surrounding territory had always been cordial and that the movement now being pushed is for the mutual benefit of city and county residents. He suggested that no good movement could be put thru successfully by factional differences and that it was the desire of the farmers to move forward in the present movement with the aid and support of the city dwellers.

Is Big Movement. County Agent Kendall said that there were many new things to consider now in relation to agriculture and that the present movement is the largest thing of its kind that has ever been attempted by the farmers. He mentioned that the local organization appreciates the support and cooperation given by business men and that the club realizes that only thru unity of effort can the best thing be accomplished.

At the conclusion of the program A. C. Metcalf made an announcement with reference to the Inter-City Rotary meeting in Springfield the coming week.

INSURANCE MEN PLAN MEETING AND BANQUET

Local Board of Underwriters Plan for Meeting and Banquet to Which Public Will Be Welcome — Date Not Yet Announced.

Local insurance agents are making extensive plans for a meeting and banquet to be held in this city at some date in the near future. It is the intention to at this time discuss various matters of special interest to agents, including the making of the insurance rates. M. C. Hook and Harrison W. King composed the committee on arrangements and they have indicated that the meeting will be one of more than ordinary interest to citizens as well as to insurance men.

Among the prominent insurance men of the state who will probably be in attendance are Frank H. Jones, publisher of the Illinois inspection bureau Chicago, and C. R. Jones of Springfield, who is in charge of the Jacksonville district.

The banquet and the meeting will both be open to the public and it is the hope of the local board of fire underwriters that the people will attend in large numbers.

As most business men know, the Illinois inspection bureau is an organization which decides upon the fire insurance rates for the State of Illinois these rates being furnished to the insurance men in the various cities. Thru the services of this board more uniform rates thruout the state are secured than would be otherwise be true. The property owner may secure the assistance of the board at any time in correcting defects in buildings and thus have lower rate apply.

An advertising campaign is being planned by the local board of underwriters, the purpose being to call attention to the fact that property owners are justified in carrying larger insurance now than formerly in view of the increased cost of building materials and labor. It costs much more to replace a building now than it did several years ago and hence a larger amount of insurance can with wisdom be carried on property of almost any description.

ANTI TUBERCULOSIS WORKERS BANQUET

Annual Meeting Held Friday Evening Directors Elected and Reports Made—Address by Dr. J. W. Pettit.

Last evening the Morgan County Anti-Tuberculosis League held its annual banquet and meeting in the parlors of Grace church. The committee in charge of the banquet was Mrs. Herbert Capps, chairman, Ralph Dunlap, and William Batz. More than one hundred places were reserved.

After the banquet Dr. Josephine Milligan, president of the league took the chair. The reports of the executive secretary, Miss Annie Floeth and the treasurer, Ralph Dunlap, were read. Then William Batz, chairman, Dr. Milligan, medical director, and Miss Frances C. Loving, public health nurse, of the Tuberculosis Sanatorium Fund made their reports.

The Journal regrets that space will not permit the publication of all the reports, but the report of the clinic will indicate some of the work that is being done by the public health nurses.

In the absence of Miss Floeth, who was unable to attend the meeting on account of illness, Mrs. Herbert Capps read her report and acted as secretary. Dr. Milligan made special mention of the excellent work Miss Floeth had done in directing the Red Cross seal sale during the holidays.

When the business session was finished Dr. Milligan introduced Dr. J. W. Pettit, of Ottawa, Ill., a pioneer in the Anti-Tuberculosis work in this state and who has a large private Sanatorium on the bank of the Illinois river at Ottawa.

Morgan County Among Leaders. Dr. Pettit told the league that Morgan County was well in the advance in its fight against tuberculosis and that when the old Oak Lawn Retreat is re-equipped it would have a Sanatorium of which any county might be proud.

He went on to say that to make a winning fight three things were necessary. A well equipped Sanatorium, a staff of visiting nurses, and a resident physician, especially trained and one who will give all his time to the Sanatorium and work of educating the public. The county sanatorium is kept up and paid for by taxes and is not different in this respect from the public schools. Moreover the county sanatoriums are not to be unorganized for the National Association will supervise the erection and administration of the sanatoriums thru the State Department of Health.

Education Necessary. Dr. Pettit drove home the fact that not only was the maintenance of a sanatorium necessary for those already attacked but that a nurse visitation and general education was necessary to prevent tuberculosis; that tuberculosis would never be eradicated until living and working conditions are improved. After Dr. Pettit finished speaking he held an open forum and answered such questions as were brought up.

The following directors of the Tuberculosis Sanatorium Fund were re-elected: Dr. H. C. Wolman, Rev. M. L. Pontius, Mrs. David Reed, Miss Florence Ward and Dr. Edward Bowe. Miss Emma Doying and Fred Darr were added to the board.

Nurses Report. Report of the Morgan County Tuberculosis Clinic Dispensary. During the year 1919, 60 clinics were held; 435 patients attended—with 403 examinations being made. 69 tuberculosis tests were made, 76 treatments were given and 35 children vaccinated against small pox. There were 2,139 visits made by the nurses to tuberculosis cases; 162 general nursing calls made with 261 metropolitan visits. Making a total of 3,562 visits for the year.

45 cases visited by nurses to patients having private physicians. These had no clinic attention. 57 bed cases of tuberculosis care for. 3 patients referred to and sent to private sanatoriums, with 1 patient having been sent to Passavant Hospital.

18 deaths were reported for the year in Jacksonville; 30, including entire county. Respectfully submitted, Frances Clair Loving, R. N. Morgan County Public Health Nurse.
